Introduction to the Paid to Click Concept

You must have heard now and then about paid to click ads and paid to read email sites. Chances are that you have registered on some of the paid to click ads or paid to read email sites (PTR and PTC sites) and thought of making some extra income from this online job. Few of you might have earned some cash from some of the sites but most of the people won't make any money from these paid to click or paid to read sites. Is there any problem with the concept OR with the sites, that most of the people don't make money from these sites? It's really with the choice of the sites. There are very few PTC websites that pays genuinely & it's difficult to know which pays & which don't. We have researched a lot and sorted out some of these website which are very trusted that you can join and start making money from these sites.
